

Information Regarding Corinthian Colleges Closed School Student Records

On April 27, 2015, Corinthian Colleges (“the School”) ceased substantially all operations and discontinued instruction at its remaining 28 ground campuses. Campuses closed include the School’s 13 remaining Everest and WyoTech campuses in California, two Everest College Phoenix campuses, the Everest Institute in New York, and Heald College—including its 10 locations in California, one in Hawaii and one in Oregon.

The School hosted meetings during the week of April 27, 2015, for students to obtain an official and unofficial copy of their academic transcripts, discuss their financial aid status, and to learn about options for continuing their education or the process for receiving a closed-school loan discharge. For more information, see www.cci.edu.

The School has made arrangements to have paper student records (academic, financial aid, career services and admissions files) for the above mentioned locations transferred to a central storage site in each impacted state pursuant to one-year prepaid leases. The School has also contracted with Zenith to safeguard electronic student records and has procured back-up copies of its student information system. The School intends to relinquish custody of these paper records to the state licensing agency in each state within the next few weeks, as soon as they can be assembled and safely transported. An update will be provided once the transfer is complete.
